Eligibility

1. Entry is open to anyone aged over 18 years.
2. Entry is open to international competitors.

Entry

1. Applicants will be selected based on two elements:
 - a. the entrant's description of their proposed Pole Theatre performance; and
 - b. a video entry of a previous performance, either a live performance or based on the competitor's intended

Pole Theatre performance description. Videos must be 2 -4 minutes in length. Video entries will be judged

Props, costume, etc

1. Performers are permitted to use any props, sets, costuming, additional performers, sound effects, performance apparatus or footwear, provided that:
 - a. the space allows for it physically;
 - b. it can be easily transported on a plane; and
 - c. it can be set up and completely removed in under 2 minutes.
2. Any use of the above items should be described in the applicant's entry.

Categories

Pole Theatre consists of 4 categories. Applicants may select more than one category to enter. Applicants must select one of the following categories to enter per entry, and pay an entry fee for each entry:

1. Pole Art

The category of Pole Art is for performances incorporating another dance style (e.g. lyrical, contemporary, commercial, latin, ballet etc). Contestants will be judged on musicality and flow. Contestants are expected to create a performance that demonstrates an artistic interpretation of movement and music on the pole.

2. Pole Drama

The category of Pole Drama is for performances that tell a story. Contestants will be expected to build a clear storyline in their performance.

3. Pole Comedy

The category of Pole Comedy is for performances that incorporate humorous and comedic elements. Contestants will be judged on how well they entertain and engage the audience.

4. Pole Classique

The category of Pole Classique is for performances that celebrate the beauty and art of sexy/sensual style pole dance and striptease. Contestants must wear heels for at least part of their performance (minimum 1 minute). Contestants are required to remove at least one item of their costume in this category. G-strings, pasties etc are permitted.
